Have finally been able to get in touch with Mr. [] concerning his statement, "This sum does not include any per diem."

The implication that the money spent by him did not include all expenses, i.e., per diem, was not intended. The expenditure of $219.50 did include everything.

What he tried to say was that he went over the normal allowance ^{per day} for that area, something like $16.00 he believes, and he did not account ~~by day~~ day by day for his expenditures.
